THE CREATIVE ADVANTAGE
ARTS EDUCATION NOW. INNOVATIVE MINDS TOMORROW.

ArtsEd washington

McGilvra Elementary School Arts Vision for 2014-2015

In 3 years, our school will provide a continuum of arts learning to all our students by putting in place:

A Corps of Skilled/Trained Arts Volunteers	Equitable Enrichment Experiences	Dedicated Spaces for the Arts	An Active School Choir	Avenues to Arts Professional Development and Access to Resources for all Teachers	Intentional Instruction Provided by Experts in Music (vocal and instrumental), drama, movement, and visual	Arts Experiences with Outside Organizations	Consistent Evidence of Learning Through Displays, Performances, and Events
Volunteers to hang art.	Access for all students to before/after school art activities.	Place for performances. Art room.	School choir. Active Choir.	Visual arts -art teacher -integrated Art experiences tied to a grade – dance, drama, visual, music PD for teachers around arts integration Curriculum and resources available to teachers. Classroom teachers empowered….access to art materials.	Vocal music K-5. Music K-5; band/strings – 4/5; instrument. Music K-5 vocal or other instrument K-3 per grade level. All 4th/5th in instrumental. Dance/movement 30 mins/week. Movement classes K-5. Visual arts K-5 1 hr/week	Visits from arts orgs. Visits to arts orgs. Local artists visit or field trips. Career day for the arts.	Ways for students to share work (events, displays, etc.) Students perform. Vibrant displays Displays around the school and community. Drama program yearly production.

DRAFT

© 2014 ArtsEd Washington

				Time for planning or PD for staff. Art-infused lessons taught K-5 - intentional

© 2014 ArtsEd Washington