THE CREATIVE ADVANTAGE
ARTS EDUCATION NOW. INNOVATIVE MINDS TOMORROW.

ArtsEd washington

Boren K-8 Stem

School Arts Vision for 2016-2019

In 3 years, our school will provide sequential arts learning to all our students by putting in place:

Parent support for the arts that is systematic and organized	Predetermined arts enriched master calendar	Creative spaces and opportunities for student exploration	Expanded and collaborative arts infused partnerships	Robust arts instruction	A community that celebrates and expressing our creativity
Funding • Grants • PTA reallocation • School funds Auction raises money for the a playground that is musical OWL spirit wear to celebrate arts teams/involvement Supply room for all arts (material, backdrops, clothes, props) Hire a PTA person to organize displays Wall Prep by grade level	Pre-planned monthly rotation by grade level/art form performance or experience Pre-planned performance schedule for student/club performances Fieldtrips to plays, dances, arts museum, musicals Large accurate school calendar All-school pre/post enrichments for all assemblies	Co-teacher clubs by art form Free choice multi-age art lessons by teachers Cafeteria-Stage/sound/schedule Playground-Art Spaces Playground-Engineering equipment (adding tension strings or a giant guitar Music recording studio Theatre/stage space created in the cafeteria	Professional musicians preform in the school Community experts (find who knows what) Partnerships with community members in STEAM fields	Sequential arts electives in grades K-8 Curriculum collaboration with specialist-Annual/Bi-Annual Teachers attend a concert together Professional Development at least 2-3 times a year Agreed upon progression of arts standards Basic Arts classes to teacher fundamentals	Art in project based learning Arts connection wall to showcase the art students are involved in Murals: indoor and outdoor Portfolios showcase All school art project (Yearly) PowerPoint and media integration in all presentations (excellence in who we are) Middle school Photography electives Student newspaper

© 2014 ArtsEd Washington