THE CREATIVE ADVANTAGE
ARTS EDUCATION NOW. INNOVATIVE MINDS TOMORROW.

ArtsEd washington

Lowell Elementary School Arts Vision for 2014

In 3-5 years, Lowell Elementary will ensure there is a continuum of high-quality arts learning by putting the following into place:

An intentional and responsive infrastructure	Targeted and Committed Arts Integration	Embedded value and support of arts as core content	Robust, multi-faceted, and sustainable collaborative community partnerships	School-wide themed learning units	Varied and frequent demonstrations of learning
• PD Framework anchored in the DNA of Arts instructional at Lowell • Schedule • End to End Funding • Adequate equipment	• Well developed arts adapted for special education • End to End adoption • Sharing the Gift/Explorations classes • Interdisciplinary Units of Learning (Project Based Learning) • Integration of arts instruction into core subjects and vice versa	• Targeted Focus • Embedded “value” and “support” of art as core content	• After school programs • Freedom to fieldtrip • More opportunities to visit art in the community • Artists-in-residence working in collaboration with staff • Increase in community partnership – more money	• School-wide assemblies • Evening Events • Buddy classes in the arts – inclusion • Immersion through themed units • School Wide Art project •	• Art displayed in and around the building • Classroom performances • Choir festivals • Arts Night • Music and arts showcases monthly • More opportunities for student and community performances